Current Housing Situation for Students in Munich

There are more than 140,000 students in and around Munich.

However, only around 9,000 places are available in the halls of residence of the Studierendenwerk München Oberbayern (STWM).

TUM does not own or run any halls of residence!

Before the Search – Plan Ahead

- Consider your preferences and limits (location, type of accommodation, price)
- Book temporary accommodation before arriving (youth hostel, airbnb)
- Plan sufficient time for the search at the campus location
- Be prepared to make compromises, such as commuting, higher costs at the beginning, sharing a flat (WG)

Rent

- Kaltmiete (“Cold rent”) basic rent for the room/apartment/house

- Warmmiete (“Warm rent”)
rent + additional costs (Nebenkosten)

- + Additional costs: electricity, Internet and TV

+ DEPOSIT (Kaution) ~ up to 3 times cold rent

Scammers – How to Recognize a Scam?

Most scams involve one or more of the following:

- The landlord is absent/abroad
- No viewing possible and a deposit is required in advance with urgency
- The feedback is in English (even if the ad was in German)

Scammers – How To Avoid Being Their Victim?

- Meet the landlord in person
- Don't send money in advance
- Do not send copies of your personal ID unless you are certain it is safe to do so

To Do's While Searching for Accommodation

- Use your network
- Be at the campus location
- Be active and check the ads at various times of the day
- Check your emails frequently (also spam) and make sure to react quickly
- Be aware of the intercultural/personal differences
- Be patient and try not to get frustrated
- Improve your German
- Nice to have: Haftpflichtversicherung (liability insurance)

Rental Contract

- Legally binding
- Includes rights and obligations of landlady/landlord and tenants

Read contract thoroughly and then sign

Accommodation Arranged: What To Do Next?

- Anmeldung
 - You will need a Wohnungsgeberbestätigung (confirmation from the property owner)
